DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER-1868.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, JANUARY 29, 1904.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

A RAGTIME PHILOSOPHY.
I don't pay taxes an' I don't pay no rent.
It happens sometimes dat I ain't got a cent;
But I sings jus' de same an' I don't raise a row,
'Cause I know till I die dead I'll keep livin' somehow.

Sometimes I has shoes as I goes down de street,
And sometimes I's walking right down on my feet
But trouble ain't gwine fo' to catch me, I row,
'Cause I know till I die dead I'll keep livin' somehow.

—Washington Star.

As an inducement, we give a ticket with every $1 worth of goods purchased. Also, tickets to those who have not paid their accounts—a ticket with every $1 paid. Only a few days more to secure tickets on the Diamond Ring, MURRAY, the Jeweler.

The Public School building at Mt. Olivet narrowly escaped destruction by fire Wednesday morning. The fire jacket in one of the flues roared out, letting the sparks and flames from the stove reach the attic, which ignited, and but for the prompt work of the Fire Department the building would have been destroyed.

It's not a little coincidental that the Rev. F. W. Harrop, Presiding Elder of the Maysville District, M. E. Church, and the Rev. E. G. B. Mann, who has just relinquished the office of Presiding Elder of the Maysville District, M. E. Church, South, should both be laid up with broken ankles. Rev. Harrop met with his accident at Latonia and Rev. Mann at Lexington.

FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

Miss Cornelia J. Browning Has Sued Washington Irvine

Miss Cornelia J. Browning has entered suit against Washington Irvine for breach of promise and wants to recover from him through the Courts the sum of $5,000 for a lacerated heart as a healing balm.

She pleads that after wooing and gaining her consent to marriage he has broken the engagement three times, the date for the consummation of the happy event having been set that many times.

Both are prominent young people of the Washington neighborhood.

Major M. C. Hutchins is the young lady's attorney.

COURT'S OPINION

Suit of Gardner vs. Winter & Co., From This County, Affirmed

In affirming the suit of Gardner vs. Winter & Co., taken up from the Mason Circuit Court, Judge Burnam delivered the opinion in the Court of Appeals as follows—

Warranty.—Appellant alleging that he bought eighteen bushels of what was represented to him by appellees as Western German millet seed, which they warranted to him as such seed, when it was not and was so known by them, that the seed they sold him were worthless, and he seeks to recover $600 damage in consequence of the slogged fraud and deceit. The only issue between the parties being to which variety of millet the seed belonged, and it appearing clear that appellant relied on his own judgment and past experience, there was no implied warranty that the seed would germinate and produce crops.

Second.—Where "a known, described and defined article is ordered of a manufacturer, although it is stated to be required by the purchaser for a particular purpose, still if the known, defined and described thing be actually supplied, there is no warranty that it shall answer the particular purpose intended by the buyer."

A. D. Cole was the Attorney for appellant; Clarence L. Sallee and C. D. Newell for appellee.

A colored girl of this city named Mary Jackson went to Minerva Wednesday for accommodation. On arriving there she was refused admission to the house where she had expected to stay. Homeless and friendless, she wandered about the streets. Yesterday she was awaiting the return of the bus to this city, and while standing on the street gave birth to a child. She is now being cared for by some colored family.

Mr. J. W. Crowell, a few years since Proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel in this city, died recently at his home in Wilson, N. C.

It was at the close of that service that he left North Carolina and engaged in the hotel business at points in West Virginia and Kentucky. He is survived by his wife and one daughter.

AN AMUSING INCIDENT

A Sixth Ward Woman Successfully Plays Policeman

An amusing incident occurred the other evening about dusk. Ever since the C. and O. has been a coal carrying road it has been the custom—a kind of squatter's rights affair—of certain denizens residing along the line of road to supply themselves with coal filched from the cars as they passed through certain portions of the city.

On the above occasion a couple of healthy men hoarded a coal car above Carmel street and when it arrived near their own domain, threw off sufficient coal to last them several weeks. A certain woman, rather on the masculine order, and ever alert to her own interests, became aware of the purpose of the coal thieves, arrayed herself in garments to successfully carry out the program she had mapped out. Having donned a long-tailed coat, and a hat after the pattern worn by our cops, a club about the size of a mace, she presented a very good counterfeit appearance of a policeman.

After stationing herself where she commanded a view of the surroundings she awaited coming events. The men hopped off the cars and with their sacks started to gather the spoils of the night.

Now here is where fine play and cunningness of the Amazon comes in. Stepping out of the shadow into the moonlight, she gave her club the proper swing and in a loud masculine voice commanded them to halt. As she had anticipated, instead of halting it put them to flight, and to accelerate and speed them on she again commanded them to halt or she would shoot.

Never did men cover ground faster than did these two; in fact it is not definitely known whether they have stopped running yet. After thus clearing the way she began gathering up and carrying home the usufruct of her wit and courage and now has enough coal to last quite a spell.

These East End women have a reputation of being able to take care of themselves, and if this heroine of the coal episode is a fair sample we verily believe they can.

Use Ray's Edelweiss Cream for chapped hands and rough skin.

Mrs. L. V. Davis will for the next few days offer her winter stock at greatly reduced prices to make room for early spring Millinery.

Mr. J. W. Chambers of the Maysville system was elected a Director, Secretary, Treasurer and General Manager of the Old Kentucky Telephone and Telegraph Company at a meeting of the stockholders at Winchester.

Considering the Time of the Year WE'VE SOLD OF OUR $15, $16.50, $18 SUITS That We Are Now Selling at $12.75

A fair quantity. But considering the value we give in these Suits at $12.75, we are surprised that there are any of them left at all. Never before in Maysville's Clothing History, in which we always have been largely identified, have such Suits sold at that price. We want our friends to take advantage of this sale. A glance at our windows will give you an idea what these Suits are; but a closer examination of them in the store will soon convince you that we give you good advice when we tell you to secure one of these Suits before they are gone.

"It is the law of American politics that no man can make himself a candidate for President, and no man can prevent himself from being a candidate for President."—From a statement made by the late James G. Blaine.

A LITTLE thing like the Constitution mustn't stand in the way when a new "pauper county" and more offices are wanted.

The Democrats having regained full sway at Frankfort, the Legislature proposes to restore the rights of the Attorney General, which were taken away from that official during the term of the Hon. CLIFTON J. PRATER, Republican. This was a striking example of peanut politics.

The President is now given one more opportunity to turn down a Civil War Veteran at the instance of Democratic advisers. The Kentucky Pension Agency is being sought by two or three Veteran Soldiers—and some dozen or less Veteran Politicians. Heretofore, despite Mr. ROOSEVELT's publicly expressed loyalty to Civil War Veterans, they have not been "in it" with chaps born after the fighting was all over and who were backed by Democrats who would vote the Republican ticket only when the Devil takes to bathing in Holy Water.

Those of our Confederate friends who lost their admiration for the late General LONGSTREET because he identified himself with the Republican party after the War, would show more consistency if they would denounce those Federal Generals who became Democrats after the War. No Confederate soldier who is worthy of the name will smirch the memory of the gallant LONGSTREET on account of his political convictions, nor will any honorable Federal soldier censure such men as SICKLES and PALMER and BLACK, simply because they are Democrats.

BOARD OF TRADE

Addresses Itself to the Wide-Awake Merchants of Maysville

MAYSVILLE, KY., January 8, 1904.
To the Merchants of Maysville—Dear Sirs:—On Saturday, February 20, 1904, we have our Fifth Annual Tobacco Fair. The four which we have held in the past have proven to be very successful. They have attracted to our city the best element of all the surrounding country and a large representation from some of the principal cities of this state and Ohio. It has not only been a day of social pleasure, but a day which has brought customers to our city who have thronged our stores and gone away laden with goods from our counters. You all say, by no means let the season pass without a Tobacco Fair.

The question arises at this point, how much of a success would the Tobacco Fair be if no one displayed any more energy or interest in its promotion than you are now doing? How many farmers have you spoken to with reference to it? How many posters have you sent out? And yet you expect it to be a success.

The Tobacco Fair is "Our Fair." This appeal is to you to go to work and do your part toward making the Fifth Annual Tobacco Fair the greatest event in the history of Maysville. Plan some novel feature by which to advertise your business. Arrange to give some souvenir of the occasion which may be carried away by the visitors as a pleasant reminder of the event. Send premium lists out in all your letters. Yours, for success,

JOHN DULEY,
President Board of Trade.

IT'S FOOLISH

Ignore Such Convincing Proof as This Maysville Citizen Gives You Here.

may differ from your neighbors in many anent question of the day. Your opinions may coincide with those of the minority or those of the majority, and still you may be in doubt. But you can hardly be skeptical about the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills when you read such emphatic local indorsement as the following:

Mrs. J. B. Gibson of 113 West Fourth street says:

"The value of Doan's Kidney Pills is quickly made manifest by their use. I obtained them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Druggists, corner of West Second and Market streets, and although my experience was not extensive it was because their curative powers were so quickly demonstrated that extended use was unnecessary. The quick relief from backache which was obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills causes me to recommend this valuable medicine whenever opportunity offers."

Forsake by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no time.

The Louisville Post thinks Mr. ROOSEVELT is stronger in Kentucky than the Republican party. He might be all that—and not very strong then. But it's a new claim that any man is stronger than his party.

The New York Bank Statement for the current week breaks all previous records, particularly in loans and deposits. Loans for the week show an increase over all previous figures by about $200,000, and the previous grand total is increased by about $15,000,000, bringing that item to within $35,000,000 of the $1,000,000 mark. The week's increase in deposits is $8,500,000 over all previous figures, and total deposits are now greater than loans by over $21,000,000. With these figures before him, even Mr. WILLIE BRYAN will probably confess that his "apparent prosperity" has become somewhat apparent.

The Cynthiana Democrat calls attention to the lamentable fact that nearly all the valuable industries of Harrison county—valuable to employees who drew good salaries and valuable to merchants who sold goods to these employees—have been driven out of business by the pig-headed policy of over-taxation by city, county and state; and the Democrat adds—

"These facts and figures are cited as an instance of how the only industries a town and county possesses may be destroyed unless they are extended inducements to remain and are carefully handled."

From a business standpoint property should be equitably taxed regardless of ownership; and where it can be shown that industries are worth more to a county than the dollars and cents that can be extracted in taxes, this should be taken into account. Capital should never be driven from our doors."

Unfortunately, however, the average "Board of Equalization" can see things only one way, and that is to pile up taxes against every "corporation," regardless of its value to the community as an employer of labor and as a customer of the merchant and the farmer.

Political Pickings

THEY MIGHT LET HIM DROP.

Louisville Courier-Journal.

Senator Platt sounds warning of "the return of the Democratic party to a sane and dangerous condition." But the warning is in vain. The Republicans have got hold of Roosevelt and can't turn him loose.

TRYING TO FOOL THE PUBLIC.

Louisville Times.

The decision of the Senate not to make public the testimony in the Wood case is not likely to remove from the public nostrils the suspicion that there is still a whiff of rotteness in Denmark.

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1867.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1868.

WILL START ANEW

The Brave Little Chinaman Will Soon Reopen His Laundry

Leung, not utterly disheartened by the wanton destruction of his business by an incendiary, has rented the Sutton street house of Mr. David Hochlinger, and it is now being fitted up for his occupancy.

He will in a short time reopen his laundry; and the way to help the little fellow out is for our people to patronize him when he gets started.

He is not asking charity; he is willing to work, and he is sure to pay for what he gets.

LOOKING BACKWARD

A Recent Ledger Article Brings Back Some Old Memories

The LEDGER's article on the Ellsworth-Jackson killing was read with considerable interest by one who was at Alexandria a few weeks after the tragedy and visited the Marshall House where it was enacted.

Colonel Ellsworth was from Mechanicsville, N. Y., and commanded what is known as a Zouave Regiment from the peculiar style in which the men were uniformed.

At the time of which we write nearly all the woodwork of the stairway had been carried off by relic hunters, most every one visiting Washington those stormy, exciting times going down to the Virginia city to see the old hotel on King street where the first bloodshed of the War had taken place.

Passing down the Potomac river some thirty years afterward and reverting to the incident, it was asked of a gentleman near by whether he knew what had become of Frank Brownell, who had bayoneted Jackson after he had shot Colonel Ellsworth, and the reply was that he had seen him that day at the Pension Department at Washington, and knew him well, as he was a clerk there himself and had seen him every day for years.

Brownell died only a year or so since at Washington City.

NO PERSON

Would Make Such a Proposition to the People of Maysville, as Has Our Leading Druggist, J. C. Pecor.

Did you ever know or hear of a person who would offer to return every cent you paid him if he could not build up and create strength and vitality for old people, weak, sickly women and children and the convalescent; create an appetite, cure stomach troubles; make those who are too thin fat, rosy and healthy. Or cure hacking coughs, chronic colds, throat and bronchial troubles?

This is exactly the offer our well-known and reliable druggist, J. C. Pecor, makes to every person in Maysville.

Mr. Pecor says Vinol is simply the most valuable and delicious preparation of cod liver oil known to medicine. It is the greatest known strength creator and health restorer. It makes the blood rich and pure. It tones up the tired, weakened digestive organs. It strengthens every organ in the body to do its work as nature intended, and wherever it fails he will give back the money paid him for it.

Thousands of unsolicited testimonial letters, which is the best proof of merit any medicine can have, prove its value. We advise every sick and ailing person in Maysville to try Vinol on Mr. Pecor's guarantee to return money if it fails. Remember, you get it at the store of J. C. Pecor, Druggist.

Mr. Elbert Pangburn will give up his place with the Adams in this city to return to the farm. Mr. Joseph Harney will take the place.

The will of the late Charles W. Hubbard of New York, read on the 18th inst., cuts out all the Mason county heirs. They were represented at the reading by Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Davidson of Philadelphia.

River News

The Harvester is on her way up with a fleet of empties.

The river at this point has fallen just two feet since yesterday, the gauge reading 49.5.

The Monongahela Coal Company lost a boat containing 25,000 bushels of coal at Louisville.

The first of the big coal fleet began passing this city this morning at 9 o'clock. They were represented at the first coal that has passed down in many months.

Several accidents are reported up the river. The Clyde and Stella Moran collided above Lock No. 4 and one of the Clyde's boats was sunk. Return, belonging to the Iron City Sand Company, and the Catharine came together at Lock No. 1, one of the sides of the Catherine being damaged.

The Fred Wilson with 5 coalboats and 7 barges, the Ranger with 5 barges, the Rover with 8 barges, the Voyager with 5 boats, the Robert T. Jenkins with 5 boats, the T. J. Wood with 5 boats, the Charley Clark with 5 boats and the Pacific No. 2 with 3 barges have left Pittsburgh and are on their way down. The Rover struck the Monongahela City Bridge and sank 3 coalboats.

Another Ohio river transportation company has been organized and with the opening up of the river two additional packets will be put on between Cincinnati and Pittsburgh. The name of the new company will be "The Pittsburgh, Parkersburg and Cincinnati Packet Company," and it will operate two steamers, the Avalon between Pittsburgh and Parkersburg, and the Ben Hur between Parkersburg and Cincinnati. The Ben Hur will make one round trip and a half each week, leaving Parkersburg early in the week and after arriving in Cincinnati going back as far as Huntington and then returning to Cincinnati from there. The return trip from Cincinnati to Parkersburg will be made in time to make connection with the Avalon, which will make two round trips from Parkersburg to Pittsburgh each week.

Damage to river interests at headwaters by the recent breakup were: Sixteen coalboats swept away from Fawcett's Landing, South Side; six coalboats swept from O'Neill's Landing, South Side; three coalboats sunk at Pacific Landing, Point Bridge; two coalboats sunk at Jute's Landing, South Side; two coalboats sunk at Snyder's Landing, Esplen Borough; three model barges loaded with steel products, swept away, one sunken; one barge sunk at Budd's Landing, below Wabash Bridge; one coalboat sunk at Clyde's Landing, below Wabash Bridge; one coalboat and two barges sunk at Albany Mine, Monongahela river; houseboat sunk at Fawcett's Landing; ten flats carried away from Brilliant Pumping Station, towboat Hornet No. 2 sunk at Padon's Island, Towboat Volunteer sunk at Brown's Station, new towboat Winifreda sunk at Marietta, two coal tugs at Brownsville, Beaumont and Umpire carried away; model barge Chester sunk at McKees Rocks, loaded with cotton ties; pleasure barge Andie Roberts sunk at Monongahela wharf. The damage done to river property will reach $200,000. Coal in some of the sunken craft may be recovered, but three fourths of the property will probably prove a total loss.

Mrs. Pinkham, whose address is Lynn, Mass., will answer cheerfully and without cost all letters addressed to her by sick women. Perhaps she has just the knowledge that will help your case—try her to-day—it costs nothing.

The merchant who wishes to reach people who buy goods, puts his advertisement in a paper that people read; the merchant who throws his money away, gives his advertisement to the fair who promises to put it on a card and hang it up on a street corner.

Not less than 5,000 people read THE LEDGER 312 days in the year. This makes a total of 1,560,000 readers in a year.

Do you want your name and business repeated that often within the next twelve months?

Cured After Suffering 10 Years.

B. F. Hale, Sup't. Miami Cycle & Mfg. Co., Middletown, O., suffered for ten years with dyspepsia. He spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and with doctors without receiving any permanent benefit. He says "One night while feeling exceptionally bad I was about to throw down the evening paper when I saw an item in the paper regarding the meritorious Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I concluded to try it and while I had no faith in it I felt better after the second dose. After using two bottles I am stronger and better than I have been in years, and I recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to my friends and acquaintances suffering from stomach trouble." Sold by J. Jas. ### WON HIS FIGHT

Appointments of Democratic Rural Mail Carriers Will Stand

Representative Kehoe in Washington Wednesday won his fight in upholding the appointments of the six Democratic carriers in the rural mail delivery service which were recently made in this county.

Some two months ago, upon the establishment of the additional routes in Mason, an examination for carriers was held, and the six applicants who had attained the highest averages were appointed. It developed later that the six successful candidates were all Democrats, and the Republicans of the county protested to the Post-office Department, and stated that there was collusion between the Examiner and the Democrats.

The Department immediately revoked the commission of the carriers, after they had gone to the expense of purchasing wagons and horses.

Mr. Kehoe complained to the Department about the matter, the case was investigated by the Civil Service Commission, and the charges were declared to be groundless.

Regardless of this, the Department continued to hold up the commissions. Mr. Kehoe insisted that the commissions be issued to the Democrats, who were entitled to the places, and after several weeks delay his contention was Wednesday sustained by the Department.

The six Democrats will be appointed and the county service, consisting of six routes, will be installed within a short time.
